FACTUAL BASIS

Should this matter have gone to trial, the government would have proven, through the introduction of competent testimony and admissible, tangible exhibits, the following facts, beyond a reasonable doubt, to support the allegations in the indictment now pending against the defendant:

The Defendant, MARIO ALBERTO LOPEZ-IZAGUIRRE (hereinafter “LOPEZ”) has agreed to plead guilty as charged to the one-count indictment charging him with illegal reentry of a removed alien in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326(a).

An Immigration and Customs Enforcement agent (hereinafter the “agent”) would testify that on or about December 25, 2011, he encountered the defendant, LOPEZ, during criminal alien program duties at the Jefferson Parish Correctional Center, in the Eastern District of Louisiana. Upon determining the defendant was illegally in the United States and upon his release from the custody of the State of Louisiana, the defendant was detained and arrested by an Immigration and Customs Enforcement (hereinafter “ICE”) agent.

The agent would testify that, upon questioning LOPEZ under oath after being read his Miranda rights, the defendant stated that he was a citizen of Honduras, was illegally in the United States, and had previously been removed. The agent confirmed the defendant’s illegal status by performing record checks through various United States Department of Homeland Security databases.

Documentation from the records of ICE, contained in the defendant’s Alien file, including a Warrant of Removal/Deportation, complete with the defendant’s fingerprints, photographs and signature, would demonstrate that the defendant, LOPEZ, was removed from the United States to Honduras on or about April 5, 2005, at or near New Orleans, Louisiana. A qualified ICE Fingerprint Specialist would testify that the fingerprints of the individual documented in the Alien file containing the Warrant of Removal/Deportation and the fingerprints of the defendant are a match. Documentation from the Alien file would further show that the defendant is an alien, and not a citizen or national of the United States.

Testimony of an official from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services regarding record checks conducted through the Computer Linked Application Information Management System would show that the defendant, LOPEZ, did not receive consent from the U.S. Attorney General or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to apply for readmission or receive permission to reenter the United States since the time of the defendant's previous removal.
